

Noise Analyst

LSA is a diversified environmental, transportation, and community planning firm with California offices in Berkeley, Carlsbad, Fresno, Irvine, Palm Springs, Point Richmond, Riverside, Rocklin, San Luis Obispo, and South San Francisco, and one office in Fort Collins, Colorado. The staff at LSA includes experts in environmental analysis, biology and wetlands, air quality and noise, community and land use planning, archaeology and paleontology, geographic information systems (GIS), global climate change, transportation planning and engineering, and water quality. LSA staff professionals are recognized as innovators in the field of environmental impact assessment and have developed a reputation among clients and professional peers in both the public and private sectors as being thorough, innovative, and objective.

LSA's Irvine office is seeking a Noise Analyst with 1–3 years of professional experience and a B.S./B.A. in an engineering, science, environmental, or urban planning field. The candidate should be able to demonstrate excellent writing, presentation, interpersonal, and time management skills in addition to an active interest in planning issues and environmental review. The Noise Analyst will assist with acoustical/noise modeling and field studies; conduct research; and help prepare environmental assessments/documents and technical studies.

Knowledge of the following is desired:

- Working knowledge of noise models, including Traffic Noise Model (TNM) and the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) noise prediction model;
- Fundamentals of noise, characteristics of sound, and noise regulatory guidelines; and
- CEQA Guidelines and assessment requirements.

LSA's greatest asset is its employee ownership. LSA offers excellent compensation and benefits, including competitive pay; medical, dental, vision, long-term disability, long-term care, group life, and AD&D insurance plans; vacation, sick, and holiday pay; an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP); and a Profit Sharing and Savings Plan (with 401k).

LSA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and we participate in E-Verify. For more information about LSA, please visit www.lsa-assoc.com.
